A CONGREGATION OF HOOSIER EDITORS VISIT TALLAHASSEE AND RECEIVE A CORDIAL WEL-COME-PATRIOTIC VIEWS OF A SOUTHERN

The members of the Indiana Editorial Association recently visited Tallahassee, the capital of Florida, and received a cordial welcome from the oil, as the orator of the evening. In the course of city authorities and people generally. At a anquet given in their honor the Mayor introduced Mr. W. D. Bloxham, a son of the Southern soil, as theorator of the evening. In the course of his remarks Mr. Bioxham said:—

Animosities, engendered by hotly-conrested political conflicts, have unfortunately produced in some sections of the South criminations and re-riminations, which have been seazed upon by the political demagogues to agritate the popular mind in the North in a manner prejudicial to our prosperly. Florida fortunately is more favored. A republican Governor, elifering in political sentiment from myself and our old citizens, but, animated and actuated by a pairiotic desire for the weilare of his adopted State, bears noble and truthful testimony in his official documents to the peace and kind feeling that reigns supreme within our limits. Life, hoerly and property are as well horsected in Forida to-day as in any Northern State. We have no harrowing recollections of the war. Piacing ourselves upon the grand basis of progress, we only ask, in a national point of view, or a union of equal States under the constitution. for a union of equal States under the constitution. We desire that the masses of your people should understand us. We ask you, gentlemen editors, to lend a helping hand to scoure that understanding. Three years ago, when our country, from Maine to Texas, was snaken by a great pointical conflict, what was the position of the South? We raised the name of a life-long opponent as our standard-bearer. And why? Not that we loved Mr. Greeley, great and good as he was—our hearts leaned more londly to Indiana's distinguished statesman, your own noble Hendricks—but we desired to tender the onve branch to the North Inrough our sternest opponent in days gone by, thinking that such a channel would be taken as a token of our desire for peace and as an evenence of the fidelity of the tender. We to-day accept the constitution of our nel would be taken as a token of our desire for peace and as an evidence of the fidelity of the tender. We to-day accept the constitution of our common country, giving full force to all its amendments; we extend freely equal rights to all classes, regardless of previous condition; we extend a hearty welcome to all strangers, and a God-speed to every setter who desires to become a clitzen of our State; whether they fiee from the despotisms of the Old World, or the ice-bound regions of the Norta; we welcome them with open arms and a generous clasp of the hand to the sunny glades of our own Florida. What more can you ask? What more do you desire? You are too noble to ask, we have too much respect to grant, that we have too much respect to grant, that we should go to the grave of our Lee and his spiendid followers, and write trator upon their foreneads. Paissed be the tongue that would request it. But while we kneel at his grave, with almost the reverence of idotarry, we still accord equal sentiments of patriotic promptings to those mode dead of your own army; and while we give "cars of love for the gray?" we also extend "love and tears to the bine;" and to-day, should any loreign power be so reackess as to lorce upon us a trial of arms, you would find the Southern solders railying with unaoated ardor ground the Stars and Stripes, and the same devotion and valor displayed as when years ago the Northern and Southern solders marched shoulder to shoulder and carried our engles in trimph at Buena Vista and Chapalitepec and into the gitter, in the displayed and the stars and the same devotion and valor displayed as when years ago the torque that we ever had a civil war; let us obliterate the tablets of our memory, and remember only that we are all Americans—a proud passport throughout the civilized world.

A BANDIT'S VENGEANCE.

ate the tablets of our memory, and rememoer only that we are all Americans—a proud passport throughout the civilized world.

CHAVEZ. THE LIEUTENANT OF VASQUEZ, THE CALIFORNIA BANDIT CHIEF, BEGINS TO EXE-

CUTE HIS THREATS OF VENGEANCE. [From the San Barnardino (Cal) Guardian.] Chavez has commenced to execute his threats. On Sunday, the 28th ult., at ten o'clock P. M., he and two of his band rode up to the station kept by Nichoias Littlefield, on the Panamint road, about 10 miles out from this town. Halting, they asked for corn for their horses: next for barley, twentyave pounds of which was furnished them and fed their norses. They then asked if they could be served with supper; were told yes. Still, they were slow about dismounting. On dismounting they entered the house, two of them calling for the drings, Chavez dringing only water. They sat down, talking quietly; talked of buy ing a pair of boots; got a quart botwaiskey; occasionally muttered in Spanish; one in broken English again asked for supper, while another went into the kitchen. Rearning from the kitchen the trio talked in Spanish a moment, when they were interrupted by the appearance of an Indian (who works und the nouse) at the door. They invited him in, but he paid no attention. At this juncture Mr. Nichols came in from the kitchen, when the three Spaniards simultaneously sprang to their feet, and with cocked revolvers presented at the heads of Messrs. Nichols and Littlefield, ordered them to throw up their hands, speaking in Spanish and bissing out something about "Americanos." Both men were then tied. The robbers also attemped to the findish, but other Indians from the property of the findish, but other Indians took to fight. The robbers then ransacked the money drawer and belied toemselves to goods to the total amount of $100. They robbed "a la chevalier." No abuse; no violence; no rough overnating in search of plunder. While two of the banuts were searching for the cash the third stepped to the door and took two Spencer rifles and a shotgun from their addes maring them have not and no contact the money of the marine them. n, but he paid no attention. planter. While two of the ban-its were searching for the cash the bird siepped to the door and took two Spencer rifles and a shotgun from their saddes, placing them near the door in convenient position for handling. Mr. Nichols asking them not to hurt the woman, Chavez replied quietly, "No nort woman; money all we want." They remained in the noise about an hour. On departing one remained benind some minutes after Chavez and the other roboer had left. On mounting as sauted Mr. Intiteled with "Adost you calch me, maybe." Joining his companions, the three started on a gallop on the lavo road. They were met a new miles from the scene of the robbery by seve all teamsters, whom they passed unmoisted, but with guns pointed toward them.

They are well mounted and armed, each with a revolver, besiles having two Spencer rifles and one shotgun in the party. They took a shotgun and other arms from the station. Messrs. Littlefield and Nichols recognized the three as men who passed along the road toward San Bernardino about seven weeks since. They then paid their bills and get change for a 575 check. Teamsters whom they passed say positively that the leader of the band is Chavez. In the wilds of layo, spiendiely mounted and armed to the testa, their capture, unless through treachery, seems bopeless. Here is an invitue opportunity for our active Speriff to distinguish himsets.
